25X1   Section   25X1   Section   25X1   Section   25X1		Approves For Release	2003/08/06 : CIA-RDP82-004	57R0138 0 02 50 0	007-9	٠ ,,
DATE OF CONTENT. 1 to 19 July 1952  DATE OF CONTENT. 1 to 19 July 1952  DATE PREPARED. 20 August 1952  EREMARKS. 25X1  ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS. 4ETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  LIBRARY  1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlitz at the Libebroose troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incenting or outgoing shipmonts. The training activity noticed irrelated instruction with decompration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction or small arms from 11:00 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, atthetics and swinning and maintenancing of valicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dimor from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at plation level, close content training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the rifles, light caching guns and heavy machine guns with live annuality of the closure from shout 12 trucks  The new motor vehicle shods, each 10 meters long, for Unit Dembrovski, which could shelter 5 Ta-61 armored scout care, is radio care and shout 12 trucks  Two new motor vehicles shods, each 10 meters long, for Unit Dembrovski, which could shelter 5 Ta-61 armored scout care, is radio care and shout 12 trucks  The new motor vehicles shods and the motor long, for Unit Dembrovski, which could shelter 5 Ta-61 armored scout care, is radio care and shout 12 trucks  The new motor vehicles shods and the relative to list from 9 p.n. to 4 a.m. Stoter vehicles seen entering and the camp did not exceed practices at company lovel. Welve 57-an AT guns were emplaced along the realized lithe between the Lieberose railroad	JOUNTRY_	Eastern Germany	25X1, REPOR	RT NO.		25
DATE OF CONTENT. 1 to 19 July 1952  DATE OFFANED.  REFERENCES.  25X1  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. A TYPE)  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA  LIBRARY   1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlita at the Lieberose troop braining grounds was occupied as previously. Here were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gan training, with its and whiteice and swincing and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 p.m., and the other from direction from 10:130 p.m., The infantry training included combat training with rifles, light sacking came and heavy nachine gums with light pack, small arms and ansaeks and large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to h a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  10 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  11 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  12 to the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the	TOPIC Mi	litary Information from the	Lieberose Troop Training	Grounds	orlican'r gysnaid ang riga. Mahanday dydl yn y rey dilly rhar diandlydydd y chwyr y	er prinse arrive in the land of the
DATE OF CONTENT. 1 to 19 July 1952  DATE OFFANED.  REFERENCES.  25X1  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. A TYPE)  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA  LIBRARY   1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlita at the Lieberose troop braining grounds was occupied as previously. Here were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gan training, with its and whiteice and swincing and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 p.m., and the other from direction from 10:130 p.m., The infantry training included combat training with rifles, light sacking came and heavy nachine gums with light pack, small arms and ansaeks and large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to h a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  10 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  11 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  12 to the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the	`.
DATE OF CONTENT. 1 to 19 July 1952  DATE OFFANED.  REFERENCES.  25X1  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. A TYPE)  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA  LIBRARY   1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlita at the Lieberose troop braining grounds was occupied as previously. Here were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gan training, with its and whiteice and swincing and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 p.m., and the other from direction from 10:130 p.m., The infantry training included combat training with rifles, light sacking came and heavy nachine gums with light pack, small arms and ansaeks and large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to h a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  Two new mater vehicle sheds, each 10 neters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  10 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  11 camp Jaculita prior to 1 July 1952.  12 to the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The large activity and the camp activity and the camp activity and the	EVALUATION	25X1 Pt	ACE OBTAINED		25X1	nicha-manik nichten.
DATE ORTAINED  REFERENCES  25X1  During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Comp Jamlitz at the Lieberose troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included instruction with demonstration meterial from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:00 to 1,m., infantry training, gus training, athletics and swimching and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:00 to 6,m., with the infantry training included combat training at platoon level, closs combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light cachine gums and heavy mothine gums with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with wantle arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the comp  25X1  25X1  Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 motors long, for Unit Dembrovski, which could shelter 5 Ba-54 armored scout cars, a radio cars and about 12 trucks  1 camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952.  1 the were onstructed at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. The Valve 57-malf gums were explaced along the railroad line between the Lieberosc railroad static and the Tauer station. Several cannot large trucks  3. Do arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during parted from 1 to 1 July 1952. Two acute tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any full trucks. A refrigerator car with me					,
REMARKS    ABTURN TO CIA LIBRARY			- ·	20 August 1	.952
During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlitz at the Lieberose troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, you training, athletics and swiming and melinomacing of vehicles for 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recemes, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dinner for 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and hoavy machine guns with live assumition, and outside the camp, narches at plateon level with 11/ph pack, small arms and jamasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X				ette som en skylver krypter krypter fra som en skylver krypter fra skylver krypter fra skylver krypter fra sky Skylver fra skylver fra skylver fra skylver fra skylver fra skylver skylver skylver skylver fra skylver fra sky	etti ja järja kunstaatiin elääkäytäjä ja
1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlitz at the Lieberose troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipmonts. The training activity noticed included: instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., instruction of small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, gun training and training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy machine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entereching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Notor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1	PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & 7	TYPE)	maankan komun. Nasamuda ankaliika dhoo liigid labannoile	erhandir einfallni anlik snéadlikkéhozak por vohk svísakhomozokk mi	-
1. During the period from 15 to 19 July 1952, Camp Jamlitz at the Lieberose troop training grounds was occupied as proviously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gent training athletics and swiming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m.  The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gamsansks, firing with rilles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp narches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and manasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X2  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 10 noters long, for Unit Dembrevski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored scout care, h radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railread static and the Tauer station. Several canouflayed trucks  25X1  25X1  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 10 noters long, for Unit Dembrevski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored scout care, h radio cars and about 12 trucks mere constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952.  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 10 noters long, for Unit Dembrevski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored scout care, h radio cars and about 12 trucks mere constructed when the could shelter 5 DA-64 armored scout care, h radio cars and about 12 trucks mere constructed at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-um AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static a	REMARKS			RE	TURN TO C	IA
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with little ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Touer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axie tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me				,	LIBRARY
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with 11the ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3.  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  1	Physical Committee of the Committee of t	ан дуудандарда дан бүст төгөөн байчан айнайн ой соогуу ойн онд орчин дэгэг хүйн бүсгэд тэх байсайг бүст гэвсэг	ar til mellitikk kinnen fölklige (h. Ammentessägen), skings i gå dikkjerigke og 3. milligen derite til et 1 (prim ved i 1794	in der die keine zu er segliere in die geschieder in die beleit die der Deut Propositie Liebpege is	e vynagoje vy someterinem ferri met falske, en 34 v kazilianje, ka metelikalasterister	N. A. S.
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with little ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Touer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axie tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	Managericanical descriptions and the second	and any one of company to the property of the property of the contract of the	andre en	urius fan had yn Praghadd raid an Heille Mariella raid a	ander ander an entre less in the entre Levy ( 5.55 % Streetle 204 a Free law (1886) 204	iller dagen viller et till grint e
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with 11the ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3.  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  10  1	DIERRE TERRETANNAS AND RECORDENCE ARTÉCULAR PROPERTIES	довирация материя также патим по перетом Луна Весен не в Аставичен, чем неготом в соверения от неготом в соверения в неготом в соверения в неготом в соверения в неготом в негот	da i-palerinandy prijadlarno misinalo zgra sijek talkan gravi (pale, m.) dane minat narovota i apstendam ta ma		integ "Tajariji". 10. sajarik ji sakenirensa jajar sakerjunga, integeler ingapaji negeti	Northwest and Estimate
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with little ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Touer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axie tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with little ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Touer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axie tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me
troop training grounds was occupied as previously. There were no changes in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 1:30 p.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with little ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Touer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axie tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me				- in incoming or outgoing shipments. The training activity noticed included; instruction with demonstration material from 9 to 11 a.m., instruction on small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. Were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks  3. We arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir paried from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at t' railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into any fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	l.	During the period from 15 troop training grounds was	to 19 July 1952, Camp Ja occupied as previously.	nlitz at the There were	Lieberose no changes small arms from 11:30 to 1 p.m., infantry training, gun training, athletics and swimming and maintenancing of vehicles from 2:30 to 6 p.m., with two recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platoon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, narches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to h July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	25X1	in incoming or outgoing sh	ipments. The training a	ctivity notic	ced included:
recesses, one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and the other for dinner from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The infantry training included combat training at platon level, close combat training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy nachine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Motor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  at two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dembrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952.	25X1	small arms from 11:30 to 1	p.m., infantry training	, gun traini	ng, athletics training with and without gasmasks, firing with rifles, light machine guns and heavy machine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platoon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 DA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks were constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952 the training activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	. •	recesses, one from 11 to 1	1:30 a.m. and the other	for dinner f	rom 1 to 1:30 heavy nachine guns with live ammunition, and outside the camp, marches at platon level with light pack, small arms and gasmasks and a large number of night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Noter vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  25X1  Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks 1 were constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952. the training activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberosc railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflajed trucks stood nearby.  3. Bo arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to h July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with he night practices of units up to 150 men with small arms and entrenching tools from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Notor vehicles seen entering and leaving the camp  25X1  25X1  2. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks vere constructed in Camp Jaulitz prior to 1 July 1952. The training activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to h July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me		heavy machine guns with li	ve ammunition, and outside	de the camp,	marches at
25X1  2. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks 125X1  25X1  3. Ho arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding wore drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me		night practices of units u	p to 150 men with small:	arms and ento	renching tools
25X1  2. Two new motor vehicle sheds, each 40 meters long, for Unit Dombrovski, which could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks to in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952. the training activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberosc railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to 4 July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	25V1	from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. Bot	or vehicles seen enterin	g and leaving	the camp
25X1	20/1
25X1
25X1
could shelter 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, 4 radio cars and about 12 trucks  were constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952.
25X1 were constructed in Camp Jamlitz prior to 1 July 1952. the training activity at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberosc railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz durir pariod from 1 to 1 July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with he	. ———					٦
at the camp did not exceed practices at company level. Twelve 57-mm AT guns were emplaced along the railroad line between the Lieberose railroad static and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 1, July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with her		in Carm Jamlitz prior to 1	July 1952.
and the Tauer station. Several camouflaged trucks stood nearby.  3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 1, July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me		at the camp did not exceed	practices at company le	vel. Twelve	57-mm AT guns	•
3. No arrival or departure of troops was observed at Camp Jamlitz during pariod from 1 to 1. July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at the railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me		and the Tauer station. Se			Hroad Staule	]
pariod from 1 to h July 1952. Two-axle tank cars had arrived at t' railroad station at a rate of one per week during the preceding were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me	3		troops was observed at	Camp Jamlite	durir were drained into army fuel trucks. A refrigerator car with me		pariod from 1 to h July 19	52. Tw-axle tank cars	had arrived a	at t'
25X1	25X1
ZDA I .			25V 4
CLASSIFICATION SECRET		A

		Approved For Release 2003/08/ഉத்து டிIA-RDP82-00457R013800250007-9
	,	25X1
>••		2
		also hauled by army trucks, arrived every two wooks. The training activity of the troops was perfurmed inside the restricted area of the camp. Rifle firing was heard from the firing ranges at all hours.
X1	L.	On 1 July 1952,
<1 <1 <1 <1 <1		with troops carrying red-bordered black epaulets were seen with the practicing troops. (n ) July, the practice was obviously terminated and all sentries were withdrawn. Trucks proceeded on the road to Guben, coming from the direction of Twollrose, *
X1	北	Comment. The information indicates that the units of the 7th Gds  Necz Div continued practicing up to company level until mid-July 1952.  Hence, there are no appreciable changes over the last report.
K 1		lajor
		Dembrovski (fau), who is known from previous reports, was believed to be the commanding officer of a tank battalion of a mechanized regiment of the division in Fuerstenwalde. The present information tends to indicate that he is the commanding officer of a unit of the 1h7th (?) Gds Sig Bn of the division. The inscription on the brassard mentioned in paragraph of the present report probably means check point.

25X1